Journalism is looking to recruit you! The 2015-16 Pony Express is still looking to add some members to its staff. Earn some A-G credits and get involved on campus. Please see Mrs. Meschkat in room A-3 for more information and talk to your counselor today.

OPERATION US: Attention students! Would you like to join a club that gives you the opportunity to visit local elementary schools to talk to 6th graders about ways to prevent bullying and discrimination? We need accepting, giving Canyon students to help make a difference! You can work with a partner to lead a small group, or present on stage. If you would like to learn more, please join OP US at our first meeting Thursday Aug. 20th at the start of lunch in E3.

Sophomores and Juniors - Yearbook is looking for some more students to join the 2016 staff. Yearbook will change your life! Talk to your counselor or see Mr. McCann in the T-building this week.

Please remember to complete your textbook damage waiver form and return it to the library no later than September 4th. This form will help save you money by documenting any pre-existing damage to your textbooks, so you don't get blamed at the end of the year. Fill out your form! Turn it in on time! Just do it!

The library is now open.

Be green and help the environment! Eco-Chicos club and AP Environmental Science are selling BPA-free water bottles for only $10. Come get yours now while supplies last. See Mr. Yong at lunch in room G-107.

Cowboys, the Canyon Checkmates Chess Club, YU-GI-OH, Magic and other board games is actively recruiting new members. We meet on Wednesday and Friday. Questions, please see Mr. Clark in G-117.
