BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP: Our next book will be: In the Presence of Mine Enemies by Harry Turtledove. According to Booklist: An alternate-history novel from the master of the form features a modest, middle-class family in near-future Berlin: Heinrich Gimpel; his wife, Lise; and their daughters Alicia, Francesca, and Roxane. He is a middle-level, civilian bureaucrat at army headquarters, and the only wrong note to contemporary this-world ears is that Heinrich's Berlin is the capital of a world-spanning Third Reich. The Gimpels, however, are covert Jews. From this dissonance, Turtledove builds a complete symphony expressing how the Third Reich's remaining Jews hide in plain sight, sometimes successfully, sometimes not. Heinrich's disguise nearly shatters when a coworker's impeccably Aryan wife tries to escape her troubled marriage by seducing him. Fortunately, the authorities soon not only lack evidence of his Jewishness but also have other fish to fry, one of them the new fuhrer, Heinz Buckliger, who remarkably resembles Mikhail Gorbachev. The countermeasures that the SS and the party hacks take against Buckliger resemble the efforts to overthrow the aforesaid Gorbachev, but even when one grasps the resemblance, the suspense of the confrontation of good and evil remains intense in Turtledove's hands. The cost of the book is $7.00. To order see Mrs. Limbaugh in the library.

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS: Mr. Gene Del Vecchio, author of The Pearl of Anton and The Sword of Anton, will be visiting on Thursday, Nov. 6 during 4th period (10:15). He will be speaking about how writers get published. We will be selling copies of his books for $13.00 and you can get them signed by the author. To attend the visitation, pick up a permission slip in the library.
