TWO CANYON STUDENTS SELECTED AS SCHOLARSHIP FINALISTS! Congratulations to Sean Wright and Victoria Wright who have been selected as finalists for the Castaic Lake Water Agency Water Challenge Scholarship where they could win up to $7,000 in money for college! Sean conserved varying amounts of water through the use of alternative gardening practices - then presented the data on an informative website at www.scvwater.info. Victoria created an anime-style cartoon poster for elementary-aged children throughout Santa Clarita to color and learn from. It includes scenes which encourage saving water, not polluting water, and protecting our environment. Good luck in the final rounds of competition!

KEY CLUB OFFICER ELECTIONS: Hey Key Clubbers!! Officer elections are around the corner!! If you would like to run for a position, then please go to V-1 by TODAY.

CSF - Applications for this semester's membership are to be handed in to room C8 by the end of lunch, TODAY. CSF matters will not be handled during any time of the day except lunch. Remember that your application form, copy of your report card or transcript, volunteer-hours form (freshmen excluded), and dues are to be submitted as one set.
