ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A JOB? The City of Santa Clarita is Sponsoring a Job Academy And Mini Job Fair For Students: The City of Santa Clarita will host a free Job Academy and Mini Job Fair with the Valley Industry Association and College of the Canyons from 2 to 5:30 p.m. on Friday, September 21 and Friday, September 28 at the Santa Clarita Activities Center, located at 20880 Centre Pointe Parkway.

*The Job Academy and Mini Job Fair will provide employment readiness training and referral assistance for Santa Clarita youth, ages 16 to 21. Space is limited, so participants must register to attend the Job Academy by Monday, September 17.

*The Job Academy is a great event to prepare Santa Clarita teens and young adults for seasonal job opportunities and local entry-level employment," says Mayor Frank Ferry. "Local employers will share invaluable information with participants such as ways to market themselves and stand out."

*Youth will work with a panel of local employers and learn how to apply and interview for local entry-level jobs opportunities through prep workshops and mock interviews. The Job Academy will provide information on how to write an employment application, when to apply and how to follow up.

*Participating employers include AMS Fulfillment, Mountasia, Old Navy, Exact Staffing, and Job Corp. A Certificate of Completion will be awarded to participants who successfully complete and pass the two-day training workshop assignments.

*To register or for more information about the Youth Job Academy and Mini Job Fair, please contact the Human Services Office at (661) 250-3708.

SENIORS

CANYON HIGH SCHOOL will be hosting a COLLEGE TESTING AND COLLEGE ADMISSIONS READINESS Seminar for parents and students on Thursday, September 20, 2012 (Back to School Night) from 6 - 6:30 pm in the Canyon Library. This event is FREE and open to all Canyon juniors and seniors and their parents or guardians. The seminar will be run by College Admissions Expert and UCLA graduate, Robert Schwartz, Director of Community Outreach for Eureka Review. The CSU and UC application windows for 2013 will be opening in just over two weeks and there is no more important time for seniors to make sure they know the application process and learn secrets to admissions success. Juniors need to prepare for testing and learn tips that can make the difference in their senior year. Seating will be limited and can only be offered on a first come, first seated basis. Historically, this event has only had standing room, so please be sure to show up a few minutes early.

PRINT YOUR OWN UNOFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS! Did you know that you can print your own copy of your transcript from the Campus Portal? After logging into the portal, click on Reports, then click on Unofficial Transcript. You can print a copy or just view it. If you are planning to go to any of the college workshops (CSU, UC and/or USC), you will need to print and bring a copy of your unofficial transcript to the workshop.

THE UCLA SCHOOL OF THEATER, FILM AND TELEVISION will be hosting Information Sessions in the Fall for prospective students, counselors, and educators. Learn about the Theater and Film Programs at UCLA. Our presentation includes information about our two departments, the application process for our graduate and undergraduate programs, the portfolio/audition/interview requirements, and other UCLA resources. These events are FREE and are open to all prospective students, parents, and counselors. Please go to: <http://www.canyonhighcowboys.org/> (under NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS) for dates/times/locations of these events.
