SUMMER 2014 Pre-college experiences: Duke University is accepting applications for two academic programs for high school students. Duke's four-week Summer College for High School Students program takes place June 28 - July 25 and is designed to enhance your students' readiness for future admission to an undergraduate degree program at a selective and prestigious university or college. Students currently in grades 10 & 11 will make friends with students from all over the globe, learn from the faculty of Duke University and earn college credit.

FOR STUDENTS CURRENTLY IN GRADES 9, 10, 11 and 12 we offer a new three-week program Duke Summer Academy for High School Students July 5 - 25. This program is designed for personal enrichment and offers a two-part daytime course in Global Citizenship and Leadership and an evening course with many exciting options available. The classroom environment is intimate enough to gain the individual attention you need to thrive, and the residential life is full of exciting excursions and activities. Go to <http://summersession.duke.edu/high-school-students> for more info.

STUDENTS: If you have had to change your shirt due to Dress Code Violations and have NOT picked up your shirts/tops before winter break they will be discarded.
